

Alison E. Stanley, Ph.D.

License No.:

PSY 11041

EDUCATION

Ph.D. Claremont Graduate School, Claremont, California, February 1985. Psychology, Committee Chair: Laura Schreibman, Ph.D.

Pre-doctoral Fellowship, The John F. Kennedy Institute, The Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine, Baltimore, Maryland. Advisor: Michael F. Dorsey, Ph.D. July 1980 to July 1981.

M.A., California State University, Los Angeles, June 1981. General Psychology, Committee Chair: Barry Lowenkron, Ph.D.

B.A., Pitzer College, Claremont, California, June 1979. Psychology, Major Advisor: Richard Tsujimoto, Ph.D.

ADMINISTRATIVE/SUPERVISORY EXPERIENCE

January 2010 to present – Psychologist, California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, Mentally Disordered Offender Unit.

Responsibilities consist of: conduct evaluations pursuant to PC 2962 at primary assigned correctional institution, write evaluations, submit in a timely manner. Conduct evaluations pursuant to PC 2962 (as above) at other than primary assigned correctional institution, necessitating travel. Submit monthly summaries of evaluations conducted; prepare and provide court testimony as needed.

September 2007 to September 2011 – Senior Psychologist Specialist, California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, Coleman Compliance Unit, Program Support Team.

Responsibilities consisted of: provided technical assistance to state prison staff and management in performance review and auditing of the mental health services delivery system; developed review and training materials including quality management.

December 1995 to September 2007 – Consulting Psychologist, California Department of Mental Health, Forensic Services Branch, Forensic Conditional Release Program, Southern California Region.

Responsibilities consist of: liaison to six community outpatient treatment programs for forensic patients, liaison to one state psychiatric/forensic hospital, clinical and administrative duties on intensive program reviews, policy development, report writing, review and investigation of special incidents, coordinate specialized statewide training.

2002 – Mandatory Continuing Education for Psychologists Program Developer, California Department of Mental Health, Forensic Services Branch.

1996 - Chair, Division IV, California Psychological Association.

1996 - Committee Member, Mandatory Continuing Education for Psychologists, California Psychological Association.

1995 – Mandatory Continuing Education for Psychologists Program Administrator and Program Coordinator, Fairview Developmental Center.

1995 - Committee Member, Orange County Psychological Association, Ethics Committee.

1994 - President, Orange County Psychological Association.

March 1994 to August 1994 -- Clinical Director, Psychological HealthCare, Garden Grove, California.

1994 - Liaison/Observer, Professional Education Task Force, California Psychological Association.

1991, 1992, 1993, 1994, 1995 - Board of Directors, Orange County Psychological Association.

1993, 1994, 1995 - Board of Directors, Division IV, California Psychological Association.

September 1993 to February 1985 - Project Coordinator, Claremont McKenna College Autism Research Project, Claremont, California.

Responsibilities consisted of: supervision and training of graduate and undergraduate students in clinical behavior therapy programs with autistic children; supervision of research projects conducted by undergraduate students; coordination of clinic schedules for staff and clients; regular clinic responsibilities including: one-to-one behavioral interventions with autistic children, parent training, and experimental research in childhood autism.

September 1982 to February 1985 - Assistant Director of Parent Training, Claremont McKenna College Autism Research Project, Claremont, California,

Responsibilities consisted of: training parents of autistic children in the use of basic principles of behavior modification and the design, implementation, and assessment of the effectiveness of treatment programs; supervising clinic staff in parent training, presentations at weekly staff meetings; maintaining records; and assisting with correspondence regarding parent training.

CLINICAL AND RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

April 2007 to June 2010 – Social Services, College Hospital Costa Mesa. Weekend social work staff in a full service private psychiatric hospital serving acute and chronic mentally ill adults and adolescents hospitalized on a voluntary and involuntary basis; conducted admissions, discharge planning, and group therapy sessions.

October 1989 to December 1996 - Private Practice, Newport Beach, California. General clinical practice with children, adolescents, and adults; emphasizing problems related to weight, behavior problems, parent management difficulties, psychological testing, assessment, and diagnosis, professional consultation.

April 1992 to December 1996 - Behavioral Consultant, Sun Valley Care Center.

April 1992 to December 1996 - Behavioral Consultant, Lynwood Developmental Care, Inc.

February 1991 to December 1993 - Behavioral Consultant, United Cerebral Palsy, Spastic Children's Foundation.

January 1991 to December 1996 - Consultant, Olinia E. Harwer, M.D., A.B.F.P., Comprehensive Family Healthcare.

January 1990 to December 1996 - Peer Review/Quality Assurance Consultant, Integrated Behavioral Health, Managed Care Corporation.

January 1990 to January 1992 - Consultant, Leigh Erin Connealy, M.D., South Coast Women's Group.

September 1989 to October 1991 - Independent Contractor, The Wellness Center Optifast Program, United Western Medical Center, Santa Ana, California.

August 1989 to August 1991 - Independent Contractor, Center for Family Life Enrichment, Los Alamitos, California in conjunction with College Hospital, Costa Mesa, California.

September 1986 to December 1995- Committee Member, Research Review Committee, Fairview Developmental Center, Costa Mesa, California.

December 1985 to December 1995 - Staff Psychologist, Behavior Adjustment Program, Fairview Developmental Center, Costa Mesa, California.

Responsibilities consisted of: individual psychometric assessment and psychological evaluation; designing and monitoring behavior management programs; data collection and maintenance; participation in interdisciplinary team conferences; Qualified Mental Retardation Professional case management; consultation with administrative and level-of-care personnel; serving on standing and ad hoc committees; report writing and case presentations.

September 1982 to September 1984 - Research Assistant, Claremont McKenna College Autism Research Project, Claremont, California.

Responsibilities consisted of: experimental analysis of childhood autism; one-to-one intensive behavioral interventions with autistic children; data collection, maintenance, analysis, and interpretation; presentations at weekly staff meetings.

July 1980 to July 1981 – Pre-doctoral Fellow, The John F. Kennedy Institute, The Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine, Baltimore, Maryland.

Responsibilities consisted of: conducting functional analyses of severe behavior problems; case management; designing and implementing behavior management programs on inpatient and outpatient bases; parent training; presentations at regular staff meetings and interdisciplinary team conferences, data collection and analysis; research design.

September 1978 to June 1979 - Psychology Intern, Pomona Unified School District, Pomona, California.

Responsibilities consisted of: teaching and management of children with learning disabilities and behavior problems.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

September 1994 to September 1995 - Adjunct Professor, California School of Professional Psychology, Los Angeles, California.

December 1991 to September 1995 - Trainer, Academic Review Psychology Licensure Examination Preparation Workshops.

December 1991, 1992 - Guest Lecturer, Association for Advanced Training in the Behavioral Sciences.

September 1989 - Guest Lecturer, Academic Review Psychology Licensure Examination Preparation: Behavior Therapy and Differential Diagnosis in Disorders Usually First Evident in infancy, Childhood, or Adolescence.

Fall 1989 to Winter 1990 – Part-time Faculty, California State University, Fullerton, California: Research in Counseling.

September 1989 - Guest Lecturer, National University, Irvine, California, Introduction to Behavior Management Techniques and Applications.

August 1989 - Guest Lecturer, Fountain Valley Regional Hospital Optifast Program, Fountain Valley, California: Emotional Issues and Family Influences in Weight Loss and Weight Maintenance.

October 1988 - Speaker, Fairview Developmental Center, Costa Mesa, California: Case Manager Training by Videotape.

March 1988 - Trainer, AIDS Train the Trainer Program, California Nurses Association.

1986, 1987 - Presenter, Fairview Developmental Center, Costa Mesa, California: The A-B-Cs of Behavior Management.

Fall semester 1982 - Teaching Assistant, Claremont McKenna College, Claremont, California: Behavior Modification.

November 1982 - Guest Lecturer, Claremont McKenna College, Claremont, California: Pediatric Feeding Disorders.

January 1979 - Teaching Assistant, Pitzer College, Claremont, California: Psychological Statistics.

HONORS AND AWARDS

Orange Psi Award, Orange County Psychological Association.

The J. William Hillman Medical Student Fellowship, United Cerebral Palsy Association of America, The Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine. Supervisor: William R. Jankel, Ph.D., Department of Neurology.

EDITORIAL EXPERIFNCE

Consulting Editor, Professional Psychology: Research and Practice, 1994, 1995.

Guest Reviewer, Developmental Research Digest, 1989.

Guest Reviewer, Analysis and Intervention in Developmental Disabilities, 1984, 1986, 1987.

Guest Reviewer, Journal of Applied Behavior Analysis, 1993. 1985, 1986.

PRESENTATIONS

DeLeon, P.H., Enright, M.F., & Stanley, A.B. (1996, August). The survival of independent practice: New horizons. Symposium presented at the annual meeting of the American Psychological Association, Toronto, Canada.

Enright, M.P., Cantor, D.W., Moldawsky, S., & Stanley, A.E. (1994, August). Future evolutions for professional psychology. Patrick H. DeLeon (Chair). Conversation hour conducted at the annual meeting of the American Psychological Association, Los Angeles, California.

Stanley, A.E. (1989, September). An integrated treatment approach to pica: A case report. Behavioral Symposium, Fairview Developmental Center, Costa Mesa, California.

Stanley, A.B. (1985, May). Explanations and comparisons of stereotyped behavior. K Charles Mace (Chair), Advances in the positive treatment of stereotyped beiavlor.

Symposium conducted at the annual meeting of the Association for Behavior Analysis, Columbus, Ohio.

Stanley, A.B., Heuermann, L., & Schreibman, L. (1984, August). An experimental analysis of delayed echolalia in an autistic child. Paper presented at the annual meeting of the American Psychological Association, Toronto, Canada.

Schreibman, L., Mills, D.L., & Stanley, A.E. (1983, September). Operant assessment of attentional deficit in autistic children. Paper presented at the Developmental Behavioral Genetics and Learning Conference (NICHD), Leesburg, Virginia.

Stanley, A.E., Schreibman, L., & Runco, M.A. (1983, August). The effects of arousal on self-stimulatory behavior autistic children. Paper presented at the annual meeting of the American Psychological Association, Anaheim, California.

Page, T.J., Stanley, A.E., Nolan-Musick, M., Richman, G., Iwata, B.A., & Deal, R.M. (1982, May). Management of obesity and related problems in Prader-Willi patients. Paper presented at the annual meeting of the Association for Behavior Analysis, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Ponticas, Y., Wohl, M.K., Iwata, B.A., Page, T.J., Stanley, A.E., Nolan-Musick, M., & Traugher, B. (1981, May). Treatment of dietary inadequacies in handicapped children: Effects of texture fading, and reinforcement on selectivity. Paper presented at the annual meeting of the Association for Behavior Analysis, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

PUBLICATIONS

Urie, K.A., Stanley, A.E., & Friedman, J.D. (2003). The humane imperative: A moral opportunity, American Journal of Bioethics, 3 (3), 20-21.

Stanley, A.E. (1995). Psychologists in public service: Developmental centers (Special Section). California Psychologist, 28 (4).

Stanley, A.E. & Glenn, K. (1989). An integrated treatment approach to pica: A case report, Journal of the Multihandicapped Person, 2, 155-165.

Schreibman, L., Stanley, A.E., & Mills, D.L. (1985). Autism: A Behavioral case study. In M.H. Hersen & C.G. Last (Eds.), Behavior therapy casebook. New York: Springer.

Riordan, M.M., Iwata, B.A., Finney, J.W., Wohl, M.K., & Stanley, A.E. (1984). Behavioral assessment and treatment of chronic food refusal in handicapped children. Journal of Applied Behavior Analysis, 17, 327-341.

Page, T.J., Stanley, A.E., Richman, G.S., Deal, R.M., & Iwata, B.A. (1983). Reduction of food theft and long-term maintenance of weight loss in a Prader-Willi adult. Journal of Behavior Therapy and Experimental Psychiatry, 14, 261-268.

NOT YET RETAINED