

Anshu Vashishtha MD

SUMMARY

I am a compassionate Board Certified internist. I have previously served as a SNF internist, and on the Dept of Medicine Volunteer Faculty at the University of California Irvine. During that time I had performed rotations as the team Attending Physician at the Residency Training Program at UC Irvine. My volunteer work has included some experience at Share Ourselves Community Clinic in Orange County and Hurricane Katrina relief work.

PROFESSIONAL EDUCATION/ QUALIFICATIONS

Residency / Board Certification in Internal Medicine (American Board of Internal Medicine) Albert Einstein College of Medicine, New York
1996

Doctor of Philosophy (Immunology) Rockefeller University, New York 1993

Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery (MDequivalent) AIIMS, India 1986

Physician license (California), DEA current

WORK EXPERIENCE

Hospitalist/House Physician / Internist/ Concierge Medicine (Part time) 1996 – present

Care of outpatients in community clinic, long term acute care and acute care patients including ICU , locum tenens Hospitalist in community hospitals Volunteer Faculty, nursing homes. Currently concierge medicine.

Consulting and employment with pharmaceutical and clinical data management industry (part and full time including Allergan, Watson, Amgen, Roche- Genentech, Aventis) Authoring, Review and analysis of clinical research data, protocols and reports 1996- present

Design and review of clinical research protocols and safety data review, analysis and reporting, including interaction with Ethics Committees, IRBs, grant proposals review