

Dr. Emily Mouser Psy.D.

License # PSY36002

Objective:

To utilize my extensive background in psychology, teaching, and travel to provide exceptional service across various roles that require strong interpersonal skills, problem-solving abilities, and a keen understanding of individual needs.

Education:

Doctor of Clinical Psychology

California Southern University

Magna Cum Laude

Master of Science (M.S.) Psychology

Capella University

Summa cum laude

Bachelor of Science (B.S.) Psychology

Capella University

Summa cum laude

Experience:

Evaluating Psychologist – Forensic Psychology – Nogales Psychological Counseling

March 2023 – Present

- Conduct comprehensive psychological evaluations to assess individuals involved in legal proceedings.
- Perform follow-up evaluations to monitor progress and update assessments as needed.
- Develop and provide treatment recommendations based on evaluation findings.
- Diagnose mental health disorders and conditions in accordance with legal and clinical standards.
- Prepare detailed reports summarizing evaluation findings, diagnoses, and treatment recommendations for court use.
- Stay updated on relevant legal and psychological developments to ensure adherence to current standards and practices.

Psychological Associate at Casa De La Familia

July 2022-March 2023

- Provided workshops and training sessions on AI use within the practice and evaluation skills.
- Provided therapy to a select group of clients ranging from PTSD to OCD.
- Conducted follow up appointments for disability claims, reviewed QME reports with clients, provide diagnosis of new clients.
- Conducted forensic assessments aligning with CTU's curricula and outcomes while providing therapy to adults and children managing a full caseload.
- Utilized problem-solving abilities to handle any issues that may arise during client interactions.

Flight Attendant at United Airlines

Mar 2008 - Jul 2018

- Ensured passenger safety using exceptional interpersonal skills while providing outstanding customer service.
- Gained comprehensive knowledge about various destinations worldwide which can be leveraged for advising clients on diverse matters.
- Developed professional relationships with airport officials and passengers showcasing strong communication skills necessary for effective interaction in different settings.

Front Desk Supervisor/Manager on Duty

Oct 2006 - Mar 2008

- Managed daily operations for a large-scale hotel acting as manager-on-duty when required; this managerial experience will aid in efficiently handling tasks within set budgets. - Navigated union rules effectively during supervision maintaining smooth operation flow demonstrating organizational skills needed for managing complex situations.

Skills:

- Technical Expertise: Advanced proficiency in Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, PowerPoint), Windows OS, Apple iOS, and AI programs including ChatGPT.
- Forensic Psychology Specialization: In-depth knowledge of forensic psychology principles with a focus on personal injury and workers compensation.
- Communication & Problem Solving: Strong interpersonal and communication skills, adept at resolving conflicts and problem-solving in high-pressure environments.
- Leadership & Training: Proven leadership abilities with experience in training and tutoring staff, as well as managing operations.
- Customer Service: Extensive background in customer service, focusing on meeting client needs and improving service delivery.
- Languages: Native Spanish speaker with the ability to provide services and training in both English and Spanish.