

Dr. Kaleb Bock, D.C.

Professional Summary

I am a Doctor of Chiropractic who abides by integrity, honesty, and compassion to help my community. My goal and desire is to have excellent patient outcomes to improve their quality of life and make an impact in what is important to them, through education and treatment.

Chiropractic clinician experienced in diversified adjusting, SOT blocking, Thompson drop technique, cupping/myofascial decompression, Graston Technique®, pregnancy and prenatal care, and shockwave therapy. Strong focus on patient education, including therapeutic exercise instruction and explaining the physiological sources of pain and dysfunction to aid in pain management and overall wellness.

Camp Counselor

CopperCreek Camp | Greenville, CA

June 2016 to August 2016

A summer camp position that allowed me to exude leadership and counseling abilities. Work was constant from 7am until 10pm every day. My job was to provide exceptional leadership and kindness to the campers. During the day, counselors ran activities for the kids such as archery, drama, boating, fishing, crafting etc... and in the evening there was a "family hour" where the counselors and their campers go to their cabin and talk about their day and what's going on in their lives such as school and family.
