DR. MICHELLE ANDERSEN, PsyD
California Licensed Psychologist (PSY 30213)

NOT YET RETAINED

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

California Licensed Psychologist (PsyD) with extensive experience in psychological assessment, diagnostic evaluation, clinical interviewing, and comprehensive psychological report writing. Skilled in conducting culturally sensitive, evidence-based evaluations, integrating clinical history, behavioral observations, assessment measures, and collateral information to develop accurate diagnostic formulations and meaningful recommendations. Experienced in evaluating complex psychological presentations, applying DSM-5-TR diagnostic principles, and communicating assessment findings clearly to clients and auxiliary professionals. Recognized for strong clinical judgment, attention to detail, ethical practice, and the ability to independently manage assessment workflows in remote settings.

CORE QUALIFICATIONS

- Clinical Psychology
- Behavioral Health
- Psychological Assessment
- Diagnostic Evaluation
- Evidence-Based Practice
- Clinical Documentation
- Interdisciplinary Care
- Utilization Review readiness
- Medical Necessity Review
- Quality Assurance
- Technical Writing

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Expedient Medicolegal Services: Independent Contractor, Licensed Psychologist

August 2026 – Present

Conduct medicolegal psychological evaluations as assigned. Review clinical records and relevant documentation.Prepare objective, evidence-based psychological reports. Apply California workers' compensation and medicolegal standards. Collaborate with attorneys, claims professionals, and other stakeholders as appropriate. Maintain compliance with applicable legal, ethical, and professional

Clinical Psychologist, Private Practice, Los Angeles, California

(2022–present)

Conduct psychological assessments, evidence-based treatment, and comprehensive evaluations. Prepare detailed clinical documentation and collaborate with multidisciplinary providers and auxiliary professionals.

Clinical Psychologist, U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs, West Los Angeles, California

(2018–2022)

Performed diagnostic assessments and behavioral health evaluations. Interpreted complex clinical data and produced detailed reports. Collaborated with interdisciplinary medical teams to coordinate patient care within a primary care environment. Performed crisis assessment and intervention.

Postdoctoral Psychology Fellow, U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs, Long Beach, California

(2013-2014)

Working on interdisciplinary teams to implement evidence based practice to Veteran population suffering from PTSD and associated complications within a medical milieu.

Clinical Psychology Intern, U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs, Loma Linda, California

(2012–2014)

Conducted behavioral health assessments, suicide risk evaluations, and implemented evidence-based interventions with a Veteran-based population. Rotations included: Neuropsychological assessment, inpatient mental health, and health psychology.

EDUCATION

- PsyD Clinical Psychology – George Fox University (2013)
- MS Psychology & Child Development – Cal Poly B.A. Psychology (2008)
- BA Psychology-UC Santa Barbara (2005)

NOT YET RETAINED