

CURRICULUM VITAE

Robert M. Masoner MD
Board Certified American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology
LCDR, US Navy
Assistant Professor, Uniformed Services University, College of Allied Health Sciences
President, Calm Horizons Psychiatry PC

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

July 2021- June 2024	Naval Medical Center San Diego Resident in Psychiatry- Residency completed
Jan 2018- June 2018	Naval Undersea Medical Institute, Groton, CT Undersea Medical Officer Course
June 2016- June 2017	Naval Medical Center San Diego Transitional Year Internship
July 2012- May 2016	University of Arizona College of Medicine, Tucson, AZ Doctor of Medicine Conferred May 2016
Jan 2007- May 2011	Arizona State University, West Campus, Phoenix, AZ Bachelor of Life Science conferred May 2011 Honors: summa cum laude

Experience

July 2024- Present	Staff Psychiatrist at Naval Medical Center San Diego Responsible for evaluating reports on sailors and marines entered for limited duty and to evaluate documentation to support length of limited duty. Also evaluate to determine if active duty personnel should be considered for early retirement based on a disabling mental health condition. Supervise four third year psychiatry residents in hospital based clinic that provides access to care for naval special warfare operators (SEALs) and support personnel in naval special warfare. Responsible for maintaining an on call schedule for supervising on call residents during night and weekend shifts.
-----------------------	---

July 2024-
Present

President, Calm Horizons Psychiatry PC

Provide comprehensive outpatient mental health care to patients in Southern California via telemedicine services. Evaluate, diagnose, and treat a wide range of mental health conditions, offering personalized support to my patient panel which includes medication management, therapeutic interventions, and long-term support tailored to each patient's unique needs. Additionally, I collaborate with Veterans Evaluation Services (VES) to conduct thorough psychiatric evaluations for veterans, playing a crucial role in determining disability ratings for veterans.

July 2021-
June 2024

Naval Medical Center San Diego, Psychiatry Residency (completed)

Responsible for evaluation and treatment of medical and psychiatric conditions. Develops and implement treatment plans such as prescribing of psychotropic medications. Responsible for monitoring treatment results. Over 12 months experience on inpatient psychiatric ward and 18 months experience managing patients in the outpatient setting. Responsible for supervising junior residents in both the inpatient setting and emergency psychiatric/consult liaison services. Responsible for educating medical students and junior residents.

June 2018-
July 2021

Detachment Surface Warfare Medical Institute, Navy Medicine Operational Training Center

Position: Instructor, Division Officer

Duties: Revise, develop, and implement curriculum for the twelve month long Independent Duty Corpsman course. Revised curriculum and tests for both Musculoskeletal and Psychiatry block. Oversaw curriculum instruction in the blocks of Musculoskeletal, Neurology, Psychiatry, and Dive Strand. Ensured that all curriculum is up to date with accurate information. Responsible for ensuring that testing material is relevant prior to testing administration. Function as the Medical Officer in TAV and FEP testing scenarios which are geared toward ensuring that IDC students are able to deliver competent and safe clinical care prior to embarking from student status.

Dec 2018-
June 2021

Special Boat Team 12, Coronado, CA

Position: Undersea Medical Officer

Duties: Responsible for screening and medically clearing Naval Special Warfare personnel for special operations duty. Provide primary care for all members of Special Boat Team 12. Provide education and training to Independent Duty Corpsman who are stationed at this clinic.

Nov 2018-
June 2021

Multiple Locations, San Diego, CA

Position: Undersea Medical Officer

Duties: Provide on call services for hyperbaric emergencies in the San Diego area which include arterial gas embolism, decompression sickness, and other physiologic events that may occur with exposure to hyperbaric environments.

July 2017-

Stashed Medical Officer for North Island Branch Medical Clinic, Coronado, CA

Dec 2017 Served as Primary Care Provider at this branch clinic while awaiting orders to Naval Undersea Medical Institute immediate following intern year. Managed both my own panel for primary care and urgent care walk-ins at this busy clinic.

June 2016-
June 2017 Naval Medical Center San Diego
Completed a Transitional Year Internship. Inpatient rotations included MICU, Internal Medicine, CCU, Pediatrics, OBGYN, Trauma Surgery, and Psychiatry. Outpatient rotations included Emergency Medicine, Family Medicine, Sports Medicine, and Psychiatry Consult Liason service. Also provided care at Internal Medicine Continuity Clinic throughout the TY Internship. Mentored Provided teaching to medical students while on their perspective rotations Throughout the year. Prepared and gave multiple presentations on clinical rounds for teaching purposes in various academic medicine settings including the use of bicarbonate in the MICU for critically ill patients.

Academic Appointments

Oct 2018-
Present Assistant Professor Uniformed Services University of the Health Sciences College of Allied Health Sciences

Professional Licenses

State: California Type: Physician and Surgeon Number: A 156978 Expire: 07/31/2026